

Announcement

Next Gen Officiating Seminar

Coming to the Twin Cities in Conjunction with the NCAA Women's Basketball Final Four

Saturday, April 2, 2022 10am-3pm

Dear Minnesota and Western Wisconsin Officials,

In conjunction with the Women's Basketball NCAA Final Four hosted in Minneapolis, MN April 1-3, 2022, the NCAA is holding the 'Next Gen Officiating Seminar' event designed to promote the benefits and positive impact officiating has within the athletic community. We want to invite local area officials, who are newer to officiating, to participate in the event to learn more about 'officiating your best' at any level.

Events will include:

- Key note speech from the NCAA Women's Basketball National Coordinator of Officiating – Penny Davis
- Learning sessions from some of the best clinicians across the country
- Light lunch/snack mid-afternoon (special diet restrictions cannot be accommodated)
- Socialize and learn from NCAA collegiate officials and staff
- NCAA special gift

This event will be hosted at the state-of-the-art Polaris Auditorium at the beautiful Land O' Lakes facility on the campus of the University of Minnesota.

Participation is limited to:

- high school officials
- youth, intramural and recreational league officials
- collegiate officials with 3 or less years' experience at the NCAA level

Details:

- Date: April 2, 2022
- Time: 10:00am – 3:00pm
- Location: Land O' Lakes Center for Excellence - 511 16th Ave SE, Minneapolis, MN 55455
- Cost: FREE to participants (sponsored by the NCAA and University of Minnesota)
- RSVP: required
- Additional details will be sent out to registered participants the week of March 28, 2022

Registration is required and will be limited to 60 officials. Please register no later than March 28, 2022. Registration will be closed once capacity is reached so please sign up as soon as you are able to commit.

<https://registernextgenofficiatingseminar.eventbrite.com>